S. H. & H. Chapman,

1346 Pine St.,

Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Sir:-

Replying to your esteemed favor of recent date which was forwarded to me here, will state that I will not purchase any more foreign coin until late in the fall. I expect to be away from home several months this summer and before going on my vacation and until sometime after my return will have no time whatsoever to give any attention to this matter. I expect to arrive in Chicago on Sunday morning and shall leave either Sunday night or Monday train.

The proposition to permit me to purchase coins and deduct same from the currency sale is no inducement, as I am not selling my currency on account of lack of funds nor is the reason that I am not purchasing coins at present due to the fact that I have not the money for the purpose. I am sorry I delayed answering your letter, but as I wrote you I will be away the greatest portion of the time from now on until July.

Yours very truly,

Mowry Friedman
